Overview: How To Get Your Home Back To “Better Than Normal” Energy During This 2020 Rat Year

Have recent events negatively affected your life? Are you worried or scared about how you are going to survive, much less thrive? Do you wish you could control some aspects – any aspect – of your life? If you’ve answered, “yes” to any of these questions, please continue reading.

Why 2020 is a Game-Changing Year

Some of you received my newsletters the first part of January stating this year was going to be a GAME-CHANGER. It’s not that I can foretell the future that I shared this information. It’s because there are cycles of events that happen. One of them was the beginning of a “Rat Year” according to the Chinese Zodiac Calendar. Add to this occurrence it was the start of a New Decade and we had the “perfect storm” for major change, although no one knew exactly what to expect or what form it would take.

What to Expect in Rat Years

Here’s what is said about Rat years –
The qualities, characteristics, and energies we can expect to experience during Rat years are: opportunities, progress, and innovation (the Apple Macintosh, the first personal computer was introduced during a Rat year), and new developments in entertainment and communication. HEALTH will figure prominently. The World Health Assembly met for the first time in a Rat year. Progress will be made in the treatment of certain diseases through the cooperation between countries and pooling research will bring important breakthroughs. It will be an action-packed and enterprising year filled with opportunity.

Current Situation

Almost immediately after the Chinese New Year, I started to hear about something called the Coronavirus. It spread quickly as did the fear and accusations surrounding this pandemic.

OVERVIEW of the RAT YEAR

In hindsight, we can see many of the Rat Year qualities or characteristics have already influenced our lives, with health being the dominant one. Innovation has played a major role to help us get through it. Technology, like Zoom, is providing solutions to help us stay connected and continue working. The opportunity to solve problems and help people around the world has been a remarkable sight to behold. Young and old of all nationalities are bridging the gaps between countries and communities to help one another. Some people are actually changing their “careers” – careers that didn’t support their soul. Many of these people who changed their careers have started enterprising and thriving businesses that do FEED THEIR SOUL! This is what can happen during Rat Years – IF YOUR HOME IS BALANCED!

Each Year Energies Change Throwing Your Home & Life Off Balance

With all that has happened this year, the energy in your home most probably is off, or out-of-balance, making life more challenging. You can take control of your destiny through simply changing the energies in your home.

The basic overview is this: Each area of your home has a particular energy associated with it. Then the Chinese New Year arrives bringing certain new energies with it. Sometime these make an area better. Sometimes they make an area worse. If you don’t help balance these energies, the rooms or locations start feeling “off.” They are OFF! They are out-of-balance!

Brief Overview of The Directions and Energies

One of the many Chinese art sciences involving energy says each direction of the home represents a specific element. There are nine different directions: North, Northeast, East, Southeast, South, Southwest, West, Northwest and Center. There is the Five Elements Theory in the Asian philosophies. They are (in their creative cycle): Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal, Water and then back to Wood. (See diagram)

The Asian culture also has an art science known as Flying Stars. It is associated with the planets' position as they "fly" through the Solar System. As these planets move around the Solar System, they influence or interact with each direction and the elements associated with that direction.

Without going into all the possibilities, let me give you a couple quick examples.

Let's say you have an area that is the Fire Element. If the New Year Flying Stars brings "Water" Element to that area, the "water" is going to put out the "Fire," making it less powerful. Let's say that is your bedroom. You could start experiencing less connection with your spouse, less romance in the relationship.

OVERVIEW of the RAT YEAR

Let's take the same area that is the Fire Element. If the New Year Flying Stars brings "Wood" to that area, the "wood" is going to be fuel for the Fire to burn, thus bringing more energy to it. Let's say that area is a home office. That extra boost in energy could bring more clients, money, work, or a promotion because it is supporting or growing the Fire element.

Don't Just Sit There, Do Something! – Take Control of Your Life!

If you're feeling as though things are out of control in your life, there are solutions. You can take charge of the energies in your home. You can implement changes in order to balance them, which in turn, will bring balance to your life!

It is simple to figure out what the main element is for each direction. Here is the list:

North = Water

Northeast = Earth

East = Wood

Southeast = Wood

South = Fire

Southwest = Earth

West = Metal

Northwest = Metal

Center = Earth

Next, get a compass to be able to locate those directional areas in your home or office. After that, check to see if you have the associated element in that location of the building. You can have the actual element (like a metal lamp or landscape painting with water) the color, or the shape associated with the element when evaluating the space.

In the above diagram you will see the Five Elements, the color and shape associated with it. They are: green/rectangle for Wood, red/triangle for Fire, yellow/square for Earth, gray/circle for Metal, blue/wavy for Water.

Go through the rooms of your home or office. Make a list of the different elements you have in each room and how much of each element you have. This will let you see if you have a little, a lot, or just what you have, in each room.

OVERVIEW of the RAT YEAR

Do you have the desired element in the room? Do you have only one type of element in a room? Are any rooms completely out of balance with one element dominating the room?

If there are imbalances, see if you can remove or add to the room to bring more balance and harmony into the room. This will start to create balance in you home. By doing this process and balancing the energies in your home, you'll start to bring balance and harmony into your life.

Be The Energy Hero Of Your Home™

With each Chinese New Year we have the Flying Stars elemental energies that influence each direction as I mentioned before. To learn more about them and how to affect the change needed for each direction, I've created a program with everything you'll need to clear and balance the energies – everything except a compass. (Most smart phones either have an app that comes on them or that you can download).

We're shifting energies in this process. I'll be your guide to support the process of balance and change in your home and in your life in every way I can.

If you were to pay for each of the items in this program separately – as I have – it would cost you over $7000!!! In this economy and with the desperate need we have to clear and balance our home's energy, a fair value would be $447.

Yet I know the vibrational power of numbers used with intention. What the world needs now is to have our homes be a foundation of balance for change. The number 4 = foundational balance. The number 5 = change. For a limited time this program is being offered at $45.

Even the Purchase Price Assists the Process

Yes, that's right! Even the numbers in the purchase price were utilized to "transform the energy of your home to create foundational balance and change."

OVERVIEW of the RAT YEAR

The program is not complicated! I've made it as simple as I can for your success. I've included everything I could to make it practically DONE FOR YOU! All you'll need to do is print the information, listen to the recordings and follow the steps. In most cases it will take probably about 3 hours.

Be The Energy Hero Of Your Life™

In approximately THREE HOURS you can clear your home's negative energies, balance the directions and apply a harmonious vibration while setting the intentions you desire for your life. THREE HOURS!! That's it!

When your home's energy is balanced, it brings balance to your life. Living your life in balance becomes easier. You get more rest. It becomes less stressful. Life is more calming. You're able to focus easier. You have more clarity. You're able to make better decisions quicker and more easily. It doesn't feel like you have the weight of the world on your shoulders while trying to push boulders UPHILL. The energy flows more smoothly. You've become the ENERGY HERO™ of your life!

Act Now!!! – Transform Your Life

The time is NOW to do the work provided in this program. Waiting will only prolong the negative energies in you home and in your life!

So why would you want to wait? Why would you want to live in the negative energy from previous years and their energy?

Take control of you life! Clear the negative energies from your home! Balance the directions! Set the intentions to LIVE A THRIVING life! Create a harmonious environment filled with hope, peace and joy!

Be the Energy Hero™ Who Helps Make This a Better World

When we balance our home's energy we start the process to balance our own internal energy. As our personal energy becomes stronger and more balanced, it radiates outward causing a ripple affect. This energy helps others realize their potential for improving their lives. You may even be the one who guides them to a better life due to your increased awareness about energy.

OVERVIEW of the RAT YEAR

Each of us is a pebble in the pond – as the saying goes. The ripple affect can spread far and wide. Clearing and Balancing your home’s energy will help change the world, making it more harmonious.

Yes, the fact you implement this program, thus changing your home’s energy, will improve your energy. Your vibrant energy will radiate to others, healing them. This in turn will help them heal their homes, their lives and the lives of their loved ones. Being an Energy Hero™ can heal and transform the World.

Start immediately to change your life, and the world. This PRICELESS offer to “Be Your Own Energy Hero™” contains everything you need, except a compass – and most smart phones have them.

You’ve got immediate access to everything you need to – Go...

Transform Your Home’s Energy to Transform Your Life!

Here’s to a THRIVING life!

Blessings,
Linda Lenore
